

Right of cancellation

As a consumer, you are no longer bound to your order if you cancel it within a period of two weeks after receipt of the shipment. Your cancellation does not necessarily need to contain an explanation. It must be made in writing on a different permanent data carrier or by returning the goods. To observe the time limit set, it suffices to send your cancellation note to:

Mario Gensicke
Westring 6
39110 Magdeburg
Germany
or email it to: shop@finetimepieces.com
or fax it to: +49 (391) 40591144

After receipt of the goods, I will reimburse any payment made before. I will have my carrier pick up the goods at your place. The customer will bear any costs incurred for returning the goods.

Please note that if you send back the goods without authorization, they will no longer be insured which may cause me to claim damages.

If the customer is responsible for any deterioration of the goods delivered, their loss or any other impossibility of return, he/she shall reimburse the decrease in value or the good's value as such. In order to avoid such a situation, the goods may not be put into service as they would be by a proper owner. The customer has to refrain from any acts that may damage the goods.
